The Voluntary Trumpet

A publication of the Charleston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists

The mission of the American Guild of Organists is to enrich lives through organ and choral music. We encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music; inspire, educate, and offer certification for organists and choral conductors; provide networking, fellowship, and mutual support; nurture future generations of organists; promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles; and engage wider audiences with organ and choral music.

DEAN'S LIST

It was great to see so many of you at our first meeting of the year at Mrs. Rose's Fine Food and Cocktails in West Ashley. It was also great to see some new faces among the approximately 30 in attendance. We had a festive social time and a delicious dinner, after which we played our traditional trivia game. Thanks to Loretta Haskell for expanding the scope of the questions to include choral music.

I hope many of you are planning to play on our members' recital on October 17 at the Cathedral Church of St. Luke and St. Paul. As of this writing, we don't have many players. I'm sure you've just been putting it off. Please consider sharing your talent with our members.

Contact Loretta Haskell (lorettahaskell@moremusicplease.com) to sign up.

The St. Luke's Recital Series (which our chapter co-sponsors with MUSC) is off to a great start. The 30-minute concerts are on Tuesdays at 12:15 at St. Luke's Chapel on the corner of Ashley and Bee Streets on the MUSC campus. If you are able, please support this series with your attendance. I believe all of the fall slots are filled, but I'm sure Tom Bailey (coordinator of the series) would love to get a head start on the spring season.

If you would like to play, contact him at twbjr60@aol.com

See you at our October meeting.

Jason

ANNOUNCEMENTS

You, your students, and anyone you know who may be interested, are cordially invited to attend and participate in an exciting Master Class, Lecture, and Recital featuring Christoph Wolff and Stefan Engels at Winthrop University, Rock Hill, SC, March 25, 2017. Please contact Clara Godshall for more information. (see flyer on page 9)

AGO MUSIC EXCHANGE

Julia Harlow

There is still much music in the AGO Music Exchange housed at Second Presbyterian Church. There are a couple hundred titles of organ music and many choral anthems. To get a pdf listing of organ (by composer), organ plus instrument, piano, wedding, Advent/Christmas, collections, etc., or to schedule a time to come browse the collection, please email Julia Harlow, juliah.6@juno.com. The collection is free to AGO members and their students.

There are also many choral anthems. Here is a listing of SATB+ anthems alone. There are multiple copies of all of these, anywhere from 6-30 copies. Please come and get music for your choir, free!

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Corpus Christi Catholic Community, Charleston

Corpus Christi Catholic Community (corpuschristicsp.org) is seeking a part-time organist for our 9:00 AM Sunday Mass and other occasional Holy Day Masses at Sacred Heart Catholic Church. We are a small but growing community in which the Anglican patrimony of liturgy and spirituality is incorporated within the Roman Catholic Church. The music for Mass would include traditional hymns (generally from the Hymnal 1982) and Anglican settings of the ordinary of the Mass (Kyrie, Gradual, etc.). A cantor chants the propers and leads congregational singing. Please contact Fr Patrick Allen, psa@charlestonordinariate.org.

Holy Cross Church, Daniel Island

Holy Cross is seeking a part-time organist, 10-15 hours per week, to help lead the worship music at two of our three weekly services. A traditional, Rite One service with communion, and a Children's Family service (a lively, 30 minute service with kids hymns and songs played on the organ). This person should be proficient on the organ, and able to develop and direct a choir for children and for adults. As they will be expected to help people not only grow as musicians, but also as disciples, they should be a baptized Christian believer who is actively seeking to live out their faith as a follower and disciple of Jesus. They should also be sympathetic to the Anglican denomination, and the Diocese of South Carolina. Finally, we are looking for someone who wants to become a part of our church community here at Holy Cross on Daniel Island, and who does not see this simply as a place where they work. Please contact the Rev. Jonathan Bennett for more information at jonathan@holycross.net.

St. James Anglican Church, James Island

Saint James Anglican Church, James Island, is seeking a full time worship leader who is a skilled organist and choir director. The applicant should be a Christian musician with a calling and passion to lead a choir and provide Spirit-led liturgical music and hymns for our traditional worship. He or she also will be involved in worship preparation for our contemporary worship team. The person whom God calls to this position will work closely with clergy and become part of a staff dedicated to each other as we engage in God's call for Saint James. Saint James places a high priority on excellence in traditional and contemporary worship styles, and the candidate will find a loving and supportive congregation ready to welcome him or her. Salary negotiable, depending on experience.

If interested, please email resume to lweld@saint-james.org or contact the church office (843-795-1623).

The Episcopal Church on Edisto, Edisto Island

The Episcopal Church on Edisto is seeking a part-time organist/pianist for their weekly Sunday service at 10 am and for special services not occurring on Sundays such as Christmas Eve, Ash Wednesday and Holy Week. The ideal candidate must be able to display a professional level of musical talent and have good communication skills.

The organist/pianist will be responsible for selecting the music for the worship services in consultation with the Priest-in-Charge. This person will also be responsible for the proper licensing of music, preparing the annual budget for music and overseeing the maintenance and repair of musical instruments. The church has an Allen Organ (circa 1965, recently refurbished) and a Yamaha Clavinova 525 digital piano (purchased in 2015).

The position includes two weeks of paid vacation and the salary is commensurate with experience. Please send your resume to Pat Neumann at episcopalchurchonedisto@gmail.com or to P.O. Box 239, Edisto Island, SC 29438. For additional information about the position, please call (843) 631-5040 or email inquiries to the email address as listed.

Mepkin Abbey, Moncks Corner

Mepkin Abbey is seeking to hire an organist to play for their Sunday morning Mass, which takes place at 10:00 a.m. each Sunday.

The ideal candidate will be a good musician, appreciative of the wonderful opportunity to work with Mepkin's monastic community in this capacity and not mind the 45-minute drive from Charleston through some of the Lowcountry's most beautiful rural settings each week. It would be helpful if the individual is familiar with Catholic liturgy. A rising, serious, and committed organ student of an AGO member could be considered. If interested, or if you have recommendations for a potential candidate for this position, please contact Abbot Stan Gumula at the monastery, 843-761-8509.

Knightsville United Methodist Church, Summerville

Knightsville UMC is seeking a part-time music director for our traditional service. Responsibilities include preparing the adult choir for worship, playing the piano in worship, picking hymns with the guidance of the pastor, and possibly working with the children's choir. Knightsville UMC is in a rapidly growing community and KUMC is growing with the community. The position is one with the potential to increase as the church continues to grow. In addition to Sunday morning responsibilities, the music director will be required at all special services that fall throughout the church calendar year such as Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Ash Wednesday. Salary will be decided based on experience and whether or not this person can lead a children's choir. The children's choir will sing monthly and present a production once a year. Please contact the church office for an application. 843-875-2117.
