The Voluntary Trumpet

A publication of the Charleston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists

The mission of the American Guild of Organists is to enrich lives through organ and choral music. We encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music; inspire, educate, and offer certification for organists and choral conductors; provide networking, fellowship, and mutual support; nurture future generations of organists; promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles; and engage wider audiences with organ and choral music.

DEAN'S LIST

Greetings,

I hope your Easter celebrations were joyous and filled with beautiful music.

I'm looking forward to seeing many of you at our final event of the season, a dinner cruise on the harbor. What a festive way to close our program year. Many thanks to Sub-Dean Loretta Haskell and the board for a great year of programs. Planning for 2017-2018 will soon be underway.

Spoleto Festival USA and the Piccolo Spoleto Festival are right around the corner. Several of our chapter members will be performing on this year's L'Organo recital series. See the listing elsewhere in this issue or on our chapter website. I hope you will make a special effort to attend these recitals and support your colleagues.

Best wishes for a summer of relaxation and renewal.

Jason

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

Holy Cross Church (ACNA), Daniel Island

Holy Cross is seeking a part-time organist, 10-15 hours per week, to help lead the worship music at two of our three weekly services. A traditional, Rite One service with communion, and a Children's Family service (a lively, 30 minute service with kids hymns and songs played on the organ). This person should be proficient on the organ, and able to develop and direct a choir for children and for adults. As they will be expected to help people not only grow as musicians, but also as disciples, they should be a baptized Christian believer who is actively seeking to live out their faith as a follower and disciple of Jesus. They should also be sympathetic to the Anglican denomination, and the Diocese of South Carolina. Finally, we are looking for someone who wants to become a part of our church community here at Holy Cross on Daniel Island, and who does not see this simply as a place where they work. Please contact the Rev. Jonathan Bennett for more information at jonathan@holycross.net.

Bethany United Methodist Church, Summerville

Bethany UMC is accepting applications for a part-time organist and pianist to play for the traditional 8:00 AM service in Spell Chapel each Sunday. Responsibilities include being an active part of a music ministry team of Bethany UMC in their role as musical leaders of worship and special events in celebration and commemoration of Christian holidays and annual liturgical observances. Part time salary available on request. Contact Valerie Bullock, Director of Music, Bethany UMC; vbullock@bethany-umc.com.

Church of the Resurrection (ACNA), Surfside, SC

Church of the Resurrection has openings for an organist (part-time), choir director (part-time), and praise team leader (part-time). The organist and choir director positions can be combined. [see Charleston AGO website for job description PDFs] Please submit all resumes, cover letters, and supporting documents to Donna Lunsford, Parish Administrator at dlunsford@resurrectionsurfside.org or mail to PO Box 14548, Surfside Beach, SC 29587-4548.
