The VOLUNTARY TRUMPET

A PUBLICATION OF THE CHARLESTON CHAPTER
OF THE AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS

A Short Voluntary Trumpet

January's Voluntary Trumpet is coming to you via Mailchimp email. Nothing happened in the chapter during December, and no one has sent in notices for January. So, there's not much to include in this issue. An upside is that you might find it easier to read on smartphones and tablets than a downloaded PDF.

Pictured above is the St. Philip's Casavant console, newly refurbished by Cornel Zimmer. It will be featured at the next AGO Charleston event.

Members' Recital
Monday January 25, 2021
7:00 PM
St. Philip's Church
142 Church St

Several members have signed up to play, but there's room yet for more. Contact Pat Gould at pgould@stphilipchurchsc.org to be added to the list and to secure practice time. This will be an in-person event with plenty of room for distancing. Wear a mask even if you've been vaccinated. The event will also be live streamed via Zoom.

Upcoming: Registering Small Organs

On Monday, March 8 at 7:00 PM, join Michael Varnadore as we explore how to make the most of a small instrument's limited resources through innovative registrations. The 10-rank Zimmer organ (with additions by Ontko and Young) at the Church of the Good Shepherd (1393 Miles Dr, Charleston, SC 29407) will be the demonstration instrument. If you know organists who deal with small instruments or are perhaps not as experienced in registering, this will be an excellent program for them.

Just two members were born in January: Doug Ludlum on January 18 and Ann Hood on January 27. If you see them, wish them a happy natal day.

AGO Music Exchange

There is still much music in the AGO Music Exchange housed at Second Presbyterian Church, downtown Charleston \(342 Meeting St\), and many donations have been made recently. There are 700+ titles of organ music and several choral anthems. To schedule an appointment to get music from the Exchange or to browse, please contact Julia Harlow at juliah.6@juno.com. She is also happy to answer questions or pull items you are interested in for review or to get to you. If you have organ or choral music or shoes that you do not need anymore, and want to donate to the Exchange, please let Julia know.
